

The Greensboro Children's Museum 2019 Summer Camp Assistant Teacher The Edible Schoolyard

The Edible Schoolyard Greensboro empowers kids and families to cultivate healthy communities through food education. Assistant teachers will spend four or five weeks immersed in this unique atmosphere assisting garden and kitchen staff to execute our summer camp's Seed to Table Programming. There is one position available for each session:

- First Session: June 3rd – 28th
- Second Session: July 8th – August 9th
- Assistant teachers may also elect to participate in both sessions

Responsibilities:

- Assist with the implementation of garden and cooking programming for preK-8th graders
- Supervise groups of 5-10 children in the garden, kitchen, and/or museum floor
- Serve as a positive role model for campers through cheerful attitude, loving and compassionate demeanor, ability to be flexible, and strong work ethic
- Facilitate opportunities for informal learning and skill-building
- Work 30 hours a week for 4 weeks (Session 1) or 5 weeks (Session 2) during sessions listed above

Qualifications:

Experience and love of working with children of varying ages
Excitement about The Edible Schoolyard's mission
High school graduate
Quick learner and independent thinker
Experience with gardening or cooking is strongly preferred, but not required

Compensation:

Stipend of $100 per week
Fresh garden food and eggs, as available seasonally

Applications accepted on a rolling basis. To apply, please submit a resume and cover letter to Rachel Vang at rvang@gcmuseum.com.
